PRESS COUNCIL OF INDIA

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESS COUNCIL
(GRANT OF HOUSE-RENT ALLOWANCE TO EMPLOYEES)
REGULATIONS, 1972

New Delhi, the 1st March 1972

Immediately on the formation of the Press Council of India under the Press Council Act, 1965, the Press Council (Grant of House-Rent Allowance to Employees) Regulations were drafted and action taken to seek prior approval of the Government of India as provided under Section 23(b) of the Act.

The Regulations have been finalised only in 1972, but, in the meantime, the officers and staff of the Council became eligible to draw house-rent allowance at the prescribed rates. With a view to safeguarding their interests, the necessity has arisen to give retrospective effect to these Regulations as stipulated under Clause (2) of Regulation 1. It is, however, certified that the interest of no one will be prejudicially affected by reason of the retrospective operation of these Regulations.

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) of Section 23 of the Press Council Act, 1965 (34 of 1965), the Press Council of India, with the prior approval of the Central Government as required by the proviso to that section, hereby makes the following regulations, name ly :—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These regulations may be called The Press Council (Grant of House-Rent Allowance to Employees) Regulations, 1972.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 4th July, 1966.

2. Grant of House-Rent Allowance to Employees of Press Council.—The general orders regarding the grant of house-rent allowance to the Government servants of Central Government shall be applicable to the employees of the Press Council of India.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this regulation, 'employees' means a person in the whole-time service of the Council but does not include a person employed on daily wages.

After 1971, every candidate, even if he has already appeared and failed shall be governed by the new regulations.

A candidate who has already qualified in thesis, may be exempted from qualifying in the thesis again, but he shall not be granted any exemption in lieu of Part I.

14. The following new Regulations have been approved for Ph.D. Degree in the Faculty of Medical Sciences :—

NEW REGULATIONS FOR THE PH.D. DEGREE IN THE FACULTY OF MEDICAL SCIENCES

(To come into force from the enrolments of 1972)

1.1. A candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the Faculty of Medical Sciences shall have obtained from this University, the degree of—

- (a) M.B.B.S. in the case of Medical Subjects; or
- (b) M.Pharm. in the case of Pharmacy subjects.

1.2. A person who has obtained the degree required in 1.1 from another recognised University may be allowed to supplicate for the Ph.D. Degree.

2. Every candidate shall reside and do research at the University, or at a Centre approved by the University, for the entire period of research i.e. two years or three years as the case may be.

3.1. A person who wishes to be accepted as a candidate for Ph.D. research shall, before starting research work, apply through the Head of the Department concerned, on the prescribed form of enrolment, with a fee of Rs. 50 (not refundable).

3.2. Application on the prescribed form for enrolment shall be considered by the University thrice in a year as under :—

- (a) From July 15 to July 31.
- (b) From November 15 to November 30, and
- (c) From March 15 to March 31.

3.3. On being enrolled, every candidate shall pay a fee of Rs. 25 per mensem to the University, provided that exemption may be allowed w.e.f. 1-7-1971 in accordance with the Rules as may be framed by Syndicate.

3.4. Within six months from the date of enrolment, the candidate shall furnish through the Head of the University Department concerned—

- (a) a tentative title of the thesis; and
- (b) a tentative design of research project.

The candidate may seek approval of the title of the thesis later but he shall submit the thesis not earlier than one year from the date of approval of the title. The Faculty of Medical Sciences may, however, relax this limit wherever it is considered necessary by the Head of the Department.

4.1. Before forwarding the application required in Regulation 3.4, Head of the Department will satisfy himself after proper scrutiny and test, including vivavoice, of adequate general knowledge of the candidate in his special field of study. Head of the Department shall also satisfy himself that the subject offered is one which can be pursued with profit and that the candidate possesses the requisite qualifications, equipment and capacity for research.

4.2. While forwarding the application, Head of the Department shall also recommend a suitable supervisor, to guide the applicant in his research work.

5. All applications for approval of the tentative title, etc. (Reg. 3.4.), after scrutiny by the Registrar's office, shall be forwarded for consideration of the Board of Post-Graduate Medical and Pharmaceutical Research which shall be appointed by Syndicate in December every alternate year and shall hold office from January 1.

6. The Board of Post-Graduate Medical and Pharmaceutical Research shall consider each application and decide whether, in their opinion:—

- (a) the subject proposed for research; and
- (b) the supervisor recommended;

are suitable and, if so, they may recommend approval of the same. If, however, the Board considers that the subject and/or the supervisor are not suitable, they may either reject the application or may suggest suitable changes for reasons to be recorded.

The Board may recommend joint supervisors in any particular case if the Head of the Department concerned considers it necessary.

7. The title of thesis and the supervisor recommended by the Board shall be considered by the Faculty of Medical Sciences.

The Faculty shall have power to co-opt any other expert for a particular meeting. The decision of this Faculty shall be final.

8.1. Every candidate shall pursue his research work at the University or at an approved centre, for three years from the date of receipt of the enrolment application. Thereafter, he shall submit the thesis by one of the following dates whichever falls immediately next to the expiry of three years.

First term—July 31.

Second term—October 31.

Third term—January 31.

Fourth term—April 30.

Provided that the Faculty may, on the recommendation of the Board, for reasons to be recorded, grant exemption for a period not exceeding one year to those, who already possess M.D./M.S. qualifications and to research workers of good standing who had already carried out useful recognised work, and allow a candidate to submit his thesis after two years of enrolment and research or any period fixed by the Board but it shall not be less than two years from the date of enrolment; such exemption shall not be granted to candidates admitted under Regulation 7.2.

8.2. A candidate who is allowed to go to another country for a part of his research work can submit his thesis only after having completed the research work at the Panjab University in Chandigarh for at least one year.

9. A candidate may apply for permission to modify the title of his thesis. If the modification is not of minor nature, the candidate shall not submit his thesis less than six months after the date on which the change is approved by the Faculty of Medical Sciences.

10. The Head of the University Department in association with the Supervisor concerned shall test every candidate, on the expiry of one year from the date of enrolment, in order to determine whether the candidate be allowed to continue his research work. If a candidate is found unfit, his enrolment shall be cancelled.

11.1. Every candidate shall report in writing, at the end of every six months to the supervisor the work done during that period. The supervisor will take such action on this report as he considers suitable depending on the nature of the report and other circumstances of the case.

11.2. The Head of the Department concerned will ensure that every supervisor submits report on the candidate's research work twice a year, viz.—

- (a) Between October 16 and 31,
- (b) Between April 16 and 30.

Reports of supervisors in all cases shall be submitted to the Board for information and any action, if necessary.

11.3. In the event of a difference arising between a candidate and the Supervisor, the matter shall, in the first instance be referred to the Head of the Department. If, however, the Head of the Department is unable to settle it, the matter shall be referred to the Dean of the Faculty. If the Supervisor happens to be the Head of a Department, the matter shall be referred to the Dean of the Faculty directly.

When the matter is referred to the Dean of the Faculty, he will take a decision himself, after obtaining, if necessary, the advice of an expert. The decision of the Dean of the Faculty shall be final.

11.4. If a supervisor gives unsatisfactory report on the work of a candidate, the position will be considered by the Board in order to decide whether the candidate should be allowed to continue his research for the Ph.D. degree.

12. After the expiry of one year's research work at the University, a candidate may be allowed by the Head of the Department to continue his research work at some other approved centre if:—

- (a) facilities for further work do not exist at the Panjab University;
- (b) If the Head of the Department is satisfied that it would be in the interest of the candidate to do further research work at such a centre.

Provided that the supervisor may, on scrutiny of the six monthly reports received from the candidate, send for the candidate to assess the progress made by him in his research work.

13.1 A candidate who is unable to complete his research work and thesis within the time allowed by the Regulation 8 may apply, through his supervisor and Head of the Department concerned, for grant of extension.

Extension may be granted by the Board up to a maximum of two years, i.e., every candidate must submit his thesis on the expiry of a total period of five years from the date of enrolment, on one of the following dates whichever falls immediately next to the expiry of the total period allowed :—

First term—July 31.

Second term—October 31.

Third term—January 15.

Provided that (1) extension shall not be granted for more than a year at a time;

(2) every application for the grant of extension shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 25/-.

The Dean of the Faculty may, for good reasons, condone delay up to three months.

13.2. If a candidate fails to submit his thesis within the prescribed period his enrolment shall be cancelled, but he may be allowed to register himself again with some other subject, or in exceptional circumstances such as prolonged illness extending over several years or exigencies of military service, on the same subject.

14. If a supervisor of a candidate who was previously guiding research at a college affiliated to another University and is now employed on the staff of the Panjab University, wishes to continue to guide that research work and the candidate also wishes to enrol himself for the Ph.D. degree of the Panjab University, in order to continue the previous work done at another University, the Board may grant such permission but it shall be subject to fulfilment of these regulations. Such a candidate shall not be allowed to submit his thesis until after one year of his enrolment at this University.

15. On completion of the research work and in accordance with the period allowed in Regulation 8 and 13 the candidate shall submit four printed or typewritten copies of his thesis and shall comply with the following conditions :—

- (i) the thesis shall accompany (a) a fee of Rs. 250/- (b) a certificate from his supervisor (as may be prescribed by the Syndicate) indicating the period for which the candidate has done research work and that the thesis is worthy of consideration for the award of the Ph.D. degree.
- (ii) The thesis must be a piece of original research work characterised either by the discovery of new facts or for a fresh interpretation of the known facts of theories; in either case it shall give evidence of the candidate's capacity for original research, critical examination and judgement;
- (iii) The thesis shall be satisfactory in its literary presentation;
- (iv) The thesis shall indicate how it embodies the results of the candidate's own research or observations and the respects in which the candidate's investigations appear to him to have advanced study of the subject;

Provided that :

- (a) A candidate may incorporate in his thesis contents of any work which he may have published on the subject, but he shall not submit, as his thesis any work for which a degree has been conferred by this or any other University.
- (b) A thesis on a subject approved by another University shall not be accepted by this University in whole or in part.
- (c) The candidate shall declare in writing, duly countersigned by his supervisor or Head of the Dep'tt., that the thesis is not substantially the same as the one he may have already submitted to another University.
- (d) The thesis must consist of the candidate's own work which must be his personal achievement,

The candidate may, however, submit in support of his thesis, any printed contribution for the advancement of his subject which may be published independently or conjointly. In the latter case, the candidate shall indicate specifically his personal contribution to the cojoint work duly attested by the supervisor.

16.1. The thesis shall be referred to two examiners appointed by the Syndicate on the recommendation of the Board and the Vice-Chancellor. The examiners may recommend—

That the thesis be accepted for the award of the Ph.D. Degree.

or

That the thesis be allowed to be resubmitted with improvement and for this purpose may make such suggestions as they may deem fit.

or

That the thesis be rejected.

16.2. If there is a difference of opinion between the two examiners in regard to the acceptance of thesis, the Syndicate may refer the thesis to another examiner.

16.3. A thesis shall be re-submitted, if so recommended by one or both the examiners, only once, and it shall be examined by the examiners, who assessed the original thesis unless both or any of them are unable or unwilling to do so.

16.4. A candidate who is required to re-submit his thesis must do so immediately on expiry of six months from the date of intimation of the decision of the University to him, unless extension is specially given by the Faculty. The revised thesis shall reach the University accompanied by half of the fee prescribed in Regulation 13, on one of the following dates whichever falls immediately next to the expiry of six months allowed herein :

First term—July 31.

Second term—October 31.

Third term—January 16.

16.5. A candidate whose thesis is rejected shall not be accepted again for the Ph.D. degree with the same subject.

17. Except in the case of a thesis which is rejected, viva-voce shall be held in accordance with the rules prescribed in this behalf by the Syndicate, before a final decision is given on the thesis. The examiners may send, if they so desire alongwith their reports, questions for use by the Board conducting the oral examination. Such a Board shall consist of examiners appointed by the Syndicate; the Head of University Department concerned and the supervisor of the thesis shall also be members of the Board.

18. The reports of both the examiners on the thesis as well as of the other examiners for the viva-voce shall be considered by the Syndicate. The Syndicate may decide—

(i) whether the degree of Doctor of Philosophy be awarded;

Or

(ii) whether the candidate be required to revise the thesis and resubmit it for re-examination;

(iii) whether the thesis be rejected.

19. The Registrar shall notify the result in accordance with the decision of the Syndicate.

20. A person already registered for the Ph.D. degree, before these regulations come into force, shall, if he so desires, continue to be governed by the old regulations until a decision on his thesis is taken.

15. Regulation 16 relating to Conditions of Service and Conduct of Teachers in Non-Government Affiliated Colleges at page 211 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1971, shall read as under :—

16. All colleges shall follow the general pattern of the standard Provident Fund Rules as adopted by the Punjab Education Department (Appendix II)* provided that the contribution of the college towards the Provi-dent Fund of an employee shall not be less than 8-1/3% of his pay.

*Provided that where a higher rate of Provident Fund already prevails it will not be reduced without the consent of the University.
